

State Reveals Campaign Costs Of Candidates

Backers of Republican Gov. Goodwin J. Knight spent $427,989 in his successful campaign for election, while backers of his Democratic challenger, Richard P. Graves, spent $94,851. Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan revealed last week.

A report of expenditures must be filed with the Secretary of State after an election, according to California law.

In the 17th Congressional District, Congressman Cecil R. King, Democrat who was returned to office, reported a total expenditure of $3355. His Republican challenger, Robert Finch, reported $24,068 as campaign expenditures.

Expenses Varied

In other California races, expenditures ranged from a few thousand to more than 100,000 dollars.

Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel reported a campaign cost of $285,354. His Democratic opponent, Samuel W. Yorty, said his campaign cost $16,930.

Republican Harold J. Powers, who retained the office of Lt. Governor, spent $40,683. Edward R. Roybal, his Democrat opponent, reported campaign expenses of $19,909.

Robert E. McDavid, who defeated William G. Bonelli for election to the 4th District Board of Equalization, reported spending $32,938 in the campaign. Bonelli told the Secretary of State he would file his report later.

PV Opera Workshop Calls for Singers

Singers are needed to help with the Palos Verdes College Opera Workshop production of "Cavaleria Rusticana" and scenes from other operas, John A. Howard, college president, said today.

Under the direction of Dr. Gabriel Fenyes, music department head, the group will put on this series. Singers for all parts are needed, he said. For auditions, information may be obtained at FR. 5-2061 or FR. 7-4541.

Cadillac and Oldsmobile for 1955!

Styling for '55 Cadillac is influenced by Jet Design

Styling for the 1955 Cadillac Eldorado is influenced by jet and rocket type aircraft design. The rear end of the car presents a swept back fin effect and jet exhaust characteristics. Seen here are dual tail lamp assemblies located along the mid-line of each rear fender. The outer light is red and incorporates turn signals, tail and stop lights. The inner light is white and serves as a backup light. The exhaust stacks are chrome plated cast aluminum. This completely different car is powered by a 270 horsepower high compression V-8 Eldorado engine.

YMCA CAMP DATES TOLD

1955 YMCA camping trips were suggested as Christmas presents for Torrance boys today by Stan Roberts, camp director of the local YMCA.

The camp for boys between 8 1/2 and 14 will be held at Round Meadows, in the San Bernardino Mountains, from July 12 to 19, he said. The camp fee will probably be $25 as it has been in the past.

The High Sierra Caravan trip to the Mammoth Lakes region and Yosemite Park, will be from Aug. 5 to 12, he said. Boys between 12 and 16 are eligible for this camp, which will cost about $25.

Further information on the camping program can be obtained at FA. 8-1272.

Camino Trustees To Attend Meet

Members of the El Camino College Board of Trustees and college administrators will attend the second quarterly meeting of the County School Trustees Assn. tomorrow.

Convening at Rivera Junior High School, educators will consider the topic "Health Education in Public Schools." Joining the group will be district presidents and health chairmen of the four parent-teacher association districts in Los Angeles County.

Expected to represent the El Camino College staff in addition to board members are President Forrest G. Murdock; Merl F. Sloan, director of student personnel; Dr. William H. Harless, director of instruction; and Carl G. Arvin, son, director of business.

Welch Sells Interest in Savings Firm

The controlling interest in the American Savings and Loan Association, of Redondo Beach, has been acquired from Sidney A. Welch, retiring president and manager, by four South Bay men, company officials announced Tuesday.

The firm, with resources of more than $9,000,000, was acquired by Mark Taper, Stuart A. Ripley, John F. Marten, and Monroe Morgan. Welch, whose father founded the firm in 1922, is retiring to enter other fields of business.

Ripley will become president, while Reece H. Dorr, associated with American Savings and Loan for 13 years, will become vice-president and manager. He is a former mayor of Manhattan Beach, and will continue as a member of the board of directors. Marten and Morgan will join the board.

There will be no other change in personnel, the announcement said.

At the same time, officials announced that three and one-half per cent interest would be paid on savings for the six-month period ending Dec. 31, 1954, with a full month's interest on funds deposited before Dec. 10.

YWCA Building Looted

Vandals broke into the YWCA building at 2320 W. Carson St., and made off with $14 in cash, and a box of pencils, according to police.

Mrs. Helen E. Aiter, of 1823 Calamari Ave., said she found a window and a side door open and footprints, those of a child, outside the building.
